BY: 5th October, 2017, however we reserve the right to accept entries beyond this date.
7. Please ensure that the following information is included with each entry: Teacher's name, School name, School roll number, Pupil's name, Class, Pupil's age, a short description of the entry and the motivation behind it. If the entrant has any special needs that their teachers would like taken into consideration as part of the judging process please note this on the entry with details of the special need.

8. Projects that are three dimensional or fragile should be submitted as photographs. Two dimensional work should be no larger than A2 when compact.
9. Entries will be judged in Junior and Senior Categories and 9 shortlisted schools will be invited to attend the eHealth Innovation Showcase at Dublin Castle on October 23rd to showcase and present their idea to a panel of judges.
10. Entries will be judged on the basis that a clear understanding of the call to action is demonstrated and on the creative interpretation of what they have learned.
11. From the shortlisted schools in attendance at the showcase, the judges will select a Primary school winner, a Junior Secondary and Senior Secondary school winner and one entry that is deemed as outstanding and this will be announced at the showcase as the overall national winner.
12. Employees, contractors or persons directly or professionally associated with the organisers and promoters of eHealth Digital Natives may not compete in the competition.
13. It is imperative that all entries must be the pupils' original work and not plagiarised wholly or in part.
14. All entrants agree to be bound by the rules of the competition; failure on the part of any entrant to adhere to any or all of these rules will render the entry in question invalid.
15. Award winners may be required to participate in publicity.
16. The promoters reserve the right to change award specifications subject to availability at conclusion of this competition. No cash or alternative in whole or part of the prize will be offered.
17. By entering this competition, copyright of all original material is retained by the author.
18. In the case of a class/whole school entry, a restricted number of participants will be able to attend the Innovation Showcase. Each school will be notified of the number, should they progress to that stage.
19. Parents of shortlisted and or winning entrants may be contacted by the promotor for confirmation of photo consent and to inform winners of their prize.

20. The Promoter cannot accept responsibility for lost, damaged or delayed entries. Proof of posting is not proof of receipt. Entries cannot be returned to entrants.
21. Any entrants may be required to participate in publicity (photographs, interviews, quotations etc) and by entering into this competition they/ their parents/ teachers have given permission to have their images reproduced.
22. The Promoter reserves the right to amend, withdraw or terminate the competition or alter the specification of the competition without prior notice should that specification be unavailable for reasons beyond their control.
23. Anyone submitting an entry must be registered students in a school to be a valid entry. The Promoter reserves the right to seek verification from the relevant school of the registration of any students who have entered the competition.
24. The Promoter reserves the right to disqualify any contestant for any reason whatsoever in its sole discretion.
25. The Promoters reserve the right to store electronically any pictures received or obtained as part of the competition and use them as stock images for alternative projects and all entrants/ teachers/ parents grant an exclusive licence to the promoter over any copyright they hold in the photos in that regard.
26. The Promoter's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into regarding decisions made.
27. Irish law applies to these terms and conditions.
